- ▶ Prakas N^o7.09-074 (NBC) of February 25, 2009 on the Asset Classification and Provisioning Banking and Financial Institution (Ogs, Year 09, N^o 22, March 23, 2009):

This Prakas has the objectives to assure that all credits and assets of all banks and financial institutions, called “Institutions”, are carefully valued by the classifying system, and that the provision can be duly registered in an account or deleted from the registry for disappearing provision, in order to reflect the real operation of the institutions.

Furthermore, it is applicable to all credits, such as anticipated credits, similar assets, including all credits granted to the branches and relative offices contained in the list of balance of the institutions. The Prakas also clarifies the flow of interest, process of collection of interest, credit and anticipated credit, circulating assets, non-circulating assets, expense of lost provision, provision for lost credit, preparing credit...etc.

On the other hand, this Prakas classifies credits and assets into many kinds, based on the possibility to pay back by a borrower, and it prevails how to appreciate the possibility of a borrower to pay back with the description of the kinds of credits and assets. In addition, it shows the ways and rights of cancelation of credit, anticipated credit, as well as the control or examination of the credit by the institutions (banks, financial institutions).

- ▶ Prakas N^o7.09-075 (NBC) of February 25, 2009 on the Minimum-Obligatory Deposit Funds of the Bank and Financial Institution (Ogs, Year 09, N^o 23, March 27, 2009):

This Prakas aims to set a goal in ordering the banks and financial institutions, called “Institutions”, to place the minimum obligatory deposit at the NBC. Therefore, the institutions shall sufficiently place the minimum reserved obligatory deposit during the deposit period in the NBC, in order to easily, safely, and strictly assure the management of liquidity operation.

This minimum obligatory deposit is either the instrument of performance of currency policy or the obligation for controlling the institutions. But, it may be changed according to the performance of the currency policy as well as the universal economic opportunity/situation. The deposit shall be an asset and shall be placed for the duration of 14 consecutive calendar days which is the minimum number of days for the deposit duration. In the case of deficit of the minimum obligatory deposit by insufficiency of deposit or placing or other acts prescribed in the Prakas, fines can be imposed on the institutions.
